Reviews

Annexe Arts played host to the intriguing and thought-provoking Peter Vadivelloo at the Caravan Club last Sunday. Peter's commanding voice, provocative songs and subtle guitar playing held the full house in raptures as he weaved seamlessly through a selection of thought-provoking and sensitive songs. The crowd loved his energy and connection with the audience. Great performance!! (Caravan Music Club, Melbourne, 2017).

A charismatic musician who engages his audience during his fantastic one man show with such a broad variety of original songs that every listener will be catered for. From political to funny all topics will be covered and leave the listener with plenty to think about well after the show has finished. (Farouk's Olive, 2017).

Singer/songwriter Peter Vadiveloo performed thought-provoking lyrics at Uranquinty Folk Festival. He combined vocals with guitar and percussion to present songs from the serious to humorous. His strong voice grabbed the audiences' attention at all of the venues (Uranquinty Folk Festival, NSW, 2017).
